About

The Asia Pacific Executive Forum (APEF) is GSA's flagship executive event in Asia, consistently attracting the industry's most senior global leaders. The annual forum brings together more than 200 top decision-makers—predominantly VP- and C-level executives—from across Asia and beyond. Designed as a highly content-rich, full- or half-day program, APEF features global speakers from leading semiconductor companies, solution providers, universities, and industry analysts. The forum provides a premier platform for executive-level dialogue on the most significant opportunities shaping the semiconductor industry, as well as the key challenges that must be addressed to fully realize them.
